BAY LAKE RANCH UNIT 3, ST CLOUD, FL

One or more photo(s) has been virtually staged. This meticulously maintained pool home is located in a quickly developing area of Saint Cloud. New construction builders have created new subdivisions in close proximity to this property and more appear to have purchased land close by. Located approximately 30 minutes south of Lake Nona, this 1 acre property will quickly be acquired by a buyer who desires the freedom of home ownership with no HOA or CDD restrictions or fees. The interior of this single story split plan house was recently updated in May 2025 with real travertine stone tile in the previously carpeted areas which include the primary bedroom along with the second and third bedrooms. Wood look ceramic tile covers the flooring in the great room and fourth bedroom. The exterior features a long paver driveway leading to a freshly painted craftsman. Savy gardeners will appreciate the grounds blank slate with endless possibilities. In the back of the house, a paver lanai overlooks a screened-in crystal clear pool and spa with gas heater. The pool also features a salt system and Pentair Controller which offers convenient smart phone app control. The pictures speak for themselves but come to see it in person. You will absolutely be glad that you did. This house is a gem and ready to go to the next fortunate homeowner.
